Comments and Suggestions to the Author(s):

Two areas in the abstract (English version) need better wording: “African scholarly community” and “the rupture of disrespectful practices...” African learned community might be the most appropriate. And “rupture” could be replaced by a different word, such as “break up” or “disruption.”

Comments and Suggestions to the Editors Only:

This is a substantive analysis of the state of higher education in the Congo (DRC). Editorial changes would not affect the substance of the text.
