

ESJ Special Edition

Title:

Evolution of the Legal Professions in the Post-Soviet Period

Guest Editor:

Prof. Nino Kharitonashvili, PhD

School of Law,
Caucasus University, Tbilisi, Georgia
Email: nkharitonashvili@cu.edu.ge

Overview of Special Edition

The special edition aims to review the development of legal professions in the post-Soviet period. It will examine legal professions across various branches of law. The papers are significant for comparative legal research and for forecasting legal policy, taking into account geographical factors and historical influences that shape specific patterns of evolution, as well as for assessing future development prospects.

Papers in the following academic disciplines are welcome:

Private Law (Substantive Private Law / Procedural Private Law)

Criminal Law (Substantive Criminal Law / Criminal Procedure)

Public Law

Submissions:

Submit your paper as a Microsoft Word document to contact@eujournal.org

Time frame:

Submission Deadline	April 14, 2026
First decision Peer Review	May 14, 2026
Revisions Due	June 14, 2026
Final Decision Due	June 30, 2026
Publication Date	July 30, 2026

Language: English

Peer Review Procedure: Single-blind.

Publication Fee: The publication fee is 97 EUR per accepted paper.

Types of Manuscripts Accepted for review:

Original research
Review
Comparative Legal Study
Policy and Reform Analysis