Questions	Rating Result [Poor] 1-5 [Excellent]
1. The title is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.	5

Yes, the title is clear.
2. The abstract clearly presents objects, methods and results.	3
Yes. The abstract consider all these elements. Probably, I would enforce better the results section of the abstract. Probably, in the introduction, more references are needed to legitimate the analysis. Here, I would encourage you to give a more precise idea of what kind of GAP the paper aims to address.
3. There are few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.	5
No, the style and grammar are good.
4. The study methods are explained clearly.	2
The methodology should be better developed included a theoretical part on why the quantitative method fits this analysis. You may see, for example: https://doi.org/10.1002/csr.1971 https://papers.ssrn.com/sol3/papers.cfm?abstract_id=3835696
5. The results are precise and do not contain errors.
The results are exciting and engaging.
6. The conclusions or summary are accurate and supported by the content.
The conclusion is interesting. However, I would encourage a reformulation of it. Mainly, you should start with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Background of the paper (What move your research idea to study this field); • Give the main results obtained discussing them considering the literature that you cite in the previous section; • Main theoretical and practical implications; • Limitations and future research perspectives.
7. The references are comprehensive and appropriate.
(Please insert your comments) Yes, I would encourage more references in the introduction and methodology section.
