Comments and Suggestions to the Author(s):

L'article est pertinent et pose la problématique des enjeux socioéconomiques de l'abandon de l'espace urbain par l'Etat et sa prise en main par les confessions religieuses qui, à travers l'érection d'infrastructures religieuses et sociales favorisent une certaine cohésion sociale et fonctionnelle malgré la bipolarisation religieuse, supplémentant ainsi à l'absence de l'Etat. Cependant il manque de précisions sur l'objet de la recherche dans le résumé. Par ailleurs, il serait bon de donner plus de détails sur la démarche méthodologique (Taille, techniques et outils de collecte). Il faudrait également préciser clairement les résultats obtenus. Enfin, dans la discussion, il aurait été bien de développer des concepts comme la ségrégation urbaine ou la fragmentation urbaine afin de voir en quels termes se pose la réalité ici décrite avant de le mettre en rapport avec la gouvernance urbaine.
