The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

*

(Please insert your comments)

The title is absolutely clear and adequate to the content of the article. Moreover, the authors of the article touch a very crucial problem. In order to learn any language well, practice is of utmost importance. If learners do not talk because of their fear to make mistakes, they will never study any language. The authors mention that they are afraid of making mistakes in their classrooms and as one reason they mention the fact that teachers are laughing at them what is absolutely forbidden.

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

*

(Please insert your comments)

The abstract meets the requirement criteria. It almost fully renders what the content of the paper. While reading the abstract, a reader already realizes the basic issues that are described in the article in details.

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

(Please insert your comments)

The language is good enough.

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

*

(Please insert your comments)

Excellent. The most impressive thing is that the study method was carried out through a true experimental research. The experiment is described in details.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

*

(Please insert your comments)

The architectonics of the paper is really noteworthy. The text is built in such a way each part is logically linked with another. The crucial ideas and the experimental part are proved and strengthened by different figures which are perfectly done.

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

*

(Please insert your comments)

In the conclusion, the authors clearly discuss what the study reveals. Moreover, they even give some recommendations what is a “pearl” of the paper.

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

*

Each in-text citation has to be included in the list of references and vice versa.

(Please insert your comments)

The bibliography comprises contemporary researches as well as those of XX century. It includes 23 references what is quite an acceptable number. The references are listed in alphabetic order.
