The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

The title is interesting, but it has not been represented generally about the issue, I would suggest another frame of title such as Serbia and France: the special relationship?

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

The abstract has not viewed a brief analysis results

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

It is well written

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

The method has not been clearly defined, such as qualitative, or content analysis, or discourse analysis, or etc.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

It is enough to describe the content but it would be helpful to explain the reason of the research if you can describe the main statement of problems of this issue

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

It is enough to describe the content

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

It is enough to support the content
