The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

It is good if the title reflected that the paper is a desk review of literature.

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

yes(Please insert your comments)

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

No. The fact that it is a desk review is not presented anywhere in the paper. The method employed for the review is also not explained.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

yes, provided the above are incorporated.

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

yes

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

The author presents a bibliography instead of a reference list. There is only one citation given as a footnote. I believe this has to be addressed. All historical and statistical data presented throughout the paper must include in-text citations.
