The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

Suggested the following edits to make it clearer
“The Loss of a Clan: Abandoning Ethos of the East African Revival by the Contemporary Kenyan Christian”

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

It is fair but misses the explanation of the target research area which one comes to meet in the introduction as All Saints Cathedral (ASC)
Some terms like Traditional Anglican should be given an operational definition since it appears to have a different meaning in the paper.

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

The English language is fairly written but has a few edits.

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

Not fully. He should introduce the EDNA Model and show how he has used it in his theological model.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

It is fairly done.

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

The conclusion lacks an objective approach. The comparative approach introduced in the introduction does not get a well distributed fair conclusion.

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

More references should be gathered from historical sources on the East Africa Revival such as Richard Gehman 1976, Jocelyn M1976 & Omer, E Akinyi 2018
