The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

The title is clear and adequate to the content of the research.

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

The abstract clearly presents the objects, methods, and results.

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

There are a few grammatical errors that need to be checked by the authors.

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

The methods have been explained properly.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

The body of the article is clear but there are some suggestions for the authors:

1. I suggest that data 3.2 should come before methods 3.1
2. The model specification is based on which theory?
3. Some paragraphs are too short to stand alone in the introduction and literature review.
4. The economic interpretation of the statistically significant coefficients is missing.

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

The conclusion is accurate and supported by the content. However, the limitations of the study are missing from the conclusion. The purpose of the study, data range, and methods should be summarized as part of the conclusion.

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

The references are comprehensive and appropriate.
