The TITLE is clear and it is adequate to the content of the article.

The title should not be too long, and should reflect the manuscript's content.

The ABSTRACT clearly presents objects, methods, and results.

The Abstract should also contain the objective of the study, a brief summary of the methodology, some important results (i.e. important features should be given), some conclusions drawn from the important features.

There are a few grammatical errors and spelling mistakes in this article.

In general, the text is well written, although there are a few spelling mistakes that need to be corrected.

The study METHODS are explained clearly.

The methods used should be clearly stated.
The author should indicate the reference (if any) of the methods used.
- A subtitle "Statistical analysis" should be provided (if applicable). The statistical method or test(s) used (if any) should be provided under this section.

The body of the paper is clear and does not contain errors.

The text of the results should include the levels of significance if the results were statistically analyzed.
The data in Tables and Figures should be statistically analyzed (if possible) and comparisons should be done. Levels of significance of comparisons should be indicated under the corresponding table or figure.

The CONCLUSION or summary is accurate and supported by the content.

The conclusion must be clear and different from the summary.
The summary should be reworded.

The list of REFERENCES is comprehensive and appropriate.

The author should strictly follow the Author Guide of the journal to arrange all the references, both in the text and in the Reference section of the manuscript.

Comments and Suggestions to the Author(s):

L'article est bien rédigé dans son ensemble. Cependant, il est nécessaire de revoir la reformulation du titre, de revoir des paragraphes répétés ou des analyses redondantes afin d'améliorer la concision de l'ensemble du document.

Je suggère aux auteurs de faire une relecture du document en prenant en compte les propositions de demande de corrections.
